                        ) Date: June 8, 2006
                        ) Time: 10:00 a.m.
                        ) Judge: Hon. David F. Levi

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED between plaintiff, United States of America, and defendants, with all parties represented as set forth in the signature portion of this stipulation, that judgment and sentencing as to all defendants may be rescheduled to June 8, 2006, at 10:00 a.m. (Defendants Kim and Pak were scheduled to be sentenced on April 6, with others to be sentenced on April 20.) The parties further agree that formal objections to the final presentence report shall be filed on or before May 25, 2006, and any reply or non-opposition shall be filed on or before June 1, 2006.

At least four of the five defendants are affected by what they believe to be serious errors in calculating the guidelines. All counsel seek additional time so they can meet and confer with counsel for the government before filing formal objections. Counsel for Mr. Saeteurn expects that the parties themselves will be able to resolve their objections without the need for hearing, but a meeting must wait until at least two of the attorneys complete jury trials later this month.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL J. BRODERICK
Federal Defender
